BUCKET LIST

- Picnic by a convict-built cottage, circa 1836. Henry Kendall Cottage and Historical Museum is a peaceful spot set on two and a half acres, offering a rare glimpse into an early settler past. It was once home to the famous Australian poet of the same name, from 1873-74.
- Classic pub lunch at Hotel Gosford, a venue reimagined with its sleek interior and open air appeal, serving daily from its dedicated dining space, Earl's Kitchen.
- House-made pastries and decadent sweet treats at Bouffant. With its “fluffy goodness for everyone” tagline, this grab-and-go spot is a petite, pink bakery café with a daily line-up of Insta-worthy treats.
- Chocolate factory tours and junior chocolatier workshops. Stop by The Factory for a chocolate and nougat fix with a wide range of delectable treats. Go behind-the-scenes on a tour, or for the kids – a junior chocolatier workshop.
- Feed the koi and catch an exhibition at Gosford Regional Gallery. Capture a moment of zen in the Japanese-themed Edogawa Commemorative Garden, and fun-filled immersive workshops await in the adjoining gallery throughout the year.
- Café-crawl. There are a growing number of coffee houses and casual-cool dining venues popping up across the CBD's heart, with coffee-lovers and diners now spoilt for choice.
- Cheer-on a game at Central Coast Stadium. Hosting a number of national sporting matches across codes, concerts and events throughout the year. Be sure to catch a home game for the mighty Central Coast Mariners.
- Enjoy a craft beer at Bay Road Brewing. A microbrewery in the heart of Gosford, enjoy a beer made in-house alongside a tasty feed from the rotation of food vendors.
- Book a class to learn something new. Sign up for a craft workshop at Albert's Line, or test your culinary skills in a class at Julie's Place with Australia's first MasterChef, Julie Goodwin.
- Hike Rumbalara Reserve. Behind Gosford is this leafy reserve with its multiple walking tracks and viewing platform with a panorama across Brisbane Water.
- Sail and a sunset sip. The Gosford Sailing Club is a top spot, with its impressive location on the water for a relaxed meal and drink after a day's sailing.

TIM TRAVERS

Tim Travers is a Central Coast based multidisciplinary designer and illustrator. He is best known for his fun, illustrative design style utilising a minimal colour palette.

Inspired by mid-century type and cartoon-style visuals, Tim's youth was spent proudly wearing the eclectic designs of Mambo. Today, Tim's own art is reflective of his personality, with an underlying sense of humour and approach to life. Outside of his creative world, Tim is known for his love of craft beers, burgers and puns.
