

BUDGEWOI

BUDGEWOI BUCKET LIST

■ Brunch at The Anchor Coffee House. Relaxed café by day and amazing restaurant by night. Delivering great service, made fresh to order meals and pet friendly.

■ Surf uncrowded breaks at Budgewoi Beach. The surf breaks along this beach are plentiful yet uncrowded compared to some of the Coast's most popular spots. Budgewoi Beach also has a dog off-leash area – so bring your four legged buddy along for a swim!

■ Family picnic at Mackenzie Reserve. Located on the foreshore of Budgewoi Creek and Lake Munmorah, the reserve's facilities include a toilet block, BBQs, undercover seating, children's playground and a liberty swing.

■ Leisurely stroll over the Footbridge. Walk off lunch with a wander over the iconic Footbridge to Dunkey Island. You can easily do a lap around to explore the island's peaceful nature reserve in under 20 minutes.

■ Fish and chips at Riverside Seafood. Perched on the edge of Budgewoi Creek in a spot affectionately named by locals as 'Budgie Circle', Riverside Seafood is the place to go for fish and chips – and the day's fresh catch!

■ Explore the Budgewoi Beach Dunecare Circuit Walk. Community volunteers have completed extensive works to rehabilitate the area from a degraded, weed-infested wasteland into a thriving dune ecosystem filled with diverse vegetation and native wildlife – a great educational experience.

■ Sunset cycling along Budgewoi Lake. A top spot to experience a breathtaking Central Coast sunset is from the shared pathway that lines the shores of Budgewoi Lake. Budgewoi Boat Ramp is a great place to start your adventure.

■ Dinner at The Olive Tree Brasserie. The 2019 Central Coast Local Business Awards 'Best Restaurant'. This modern Mediterranean style menu offers tapas, wood-fired pizza, pasta and items from the grill. It's also backed up by an impressive wine and cocktail list.

■ Chill in the Coast Hotel beer garden. Overlooking 'Budgie Circle' is the beer garden of The Coast Hotel Budgewoi. It's ideally located under the hotel's large fig tree, providing a nice, shady spot to enjoy your drop of choice.

■ Book an escape to Budgewoi Holiday Park. Featuring a range of holiday cabins plus powered and non-powered camping sites, there's an option to suit your family's size and budget. The kids will love the resort pool, jumping pillow and playground.
