LONG JETTY BUCKET LIST

Discover THE Long Jetty. At the end of Archbold Road, you'll discover exactly how this town got its name. Walk the entire 351 metres (a 700m round trip!) of The Long Jetty, which stretches out into Tuggerah Lake, and spot wetland wildlife along the way.

Café crawl the trendy high street triangle. The central intersection of Long Jetty features three incredibly unique cafés that each double as a bakery, gallery or gig space, and yoga studio; The Glass Onion Society, Green Tangerine and Modern Organic.

Browse unique boutiques and vintage treasures. Shopping at Long Jetty is a dream for fans of vintage and coastal style. Start at the stunning A-framed building housing Shadow Bang Apothecary and Supply and continue to Plain Janes, Sadie Lou, and Tiny Folk Co. Don't miss the local vintage gems at Tikilala, Sorry Grandma for retro, Sound Exchange for vinyl, and Long Jetty Vintage.

Take the Coast to Lake Walk. The best way to explore the area on foot is this signposted scenic trail from lakeside Long Jetty to seaside Toowoan Bay. The Coast to Lake Walk is an easy, self-guided route connecting you to local attractions, landmarks, and public amenities around The Entrance and Long Jetty peninsula, covering 7.6 kilometres.

Sips and snacks in a 1950s retro theatre. The Savoy was first built in 1956, the Golden Age of the screen, and after a seriously chic makeover it stands today as a trendy bar and restaurant that still screens films in its historic cinema space. Serving craft beers, cocktails and quality pizza, this is a stylish spot to meet for drinks, catch live music or watch classic movies in their tiered lounge area.

Experience international eats. Start early with a visit to Bali or Hawaii at Bowlarama, serving plant-based smoothies and bowls reminiscent of what you'd enjoy on a tropical island paradise. For lunch, venture to Japan with Yasaka Japanese Dining, serving sashimi, Agedashi tofu and ramen to this end of the Coast. Or try Kaino's Seafood and Burgers, serving home-made lunches with a middle eastern influence. For a spicy alternative, pop in to Jolly Good Indian Restaurant, a long-standing local takeaway headed up by restaurateurs Raj and Raki.

Family BBQ on the Foreshore. A beautiful span of green space lines the eastern foreshore of Tuggerah Lake. Long Jetty Foreshore Reserve features a shared pathway designed for strolling, cycling, skating or jogging, and hosts the Shelly Beach Markets on the last Saturday of the month. Grab a picnic spot by one of the lakeside public BBQs, with three long jetties and a children's playground to explore before the family spread is served.

Long Jetty street photography. In addition to capturing a sunset shot at The Long Jetty, a colourful photograph of yourself at one of Thompson Street's famous painted wall murals is an essential part of the Long Jetty experience. The vibrant 'Welcome to Long Jetty' mural is extremely Insta-worthy, collectively created by artists Dan Coy, Brent Smith and Nathan Pickering.
