

WYONG BUCKET LIST

Take a Heritage Tour. Take a self-guided Wyong Heritage Walk available around the town centre, with signposted stops to help you step back into the shoes of locals in the 19th century.

The Wyong Milk Factory experience. Standing since 1906, the site has been lovingly restored to house a modern mix of local makers, creators and producers. Shop locally produced cheese, chocolates and doughnuts!

Spot a Platypus paddling Wyong Creek. Hire a kayak from All Sorts Fitness and paddle down Wyong Creek for a little adventure. While paddling, you will spot various wildlife, but most notably you may spy a wild Platypus!

Freshly roasted coffee and laneway lunching. Wyong's centre is a great spot for grabbing your morning pick-me-up, casual business meeting, or al fresco brunch. Try Coffee at Glee Coffee Roasters followed by lunch at Duck Duck Moose and sweet treats at Pretty Sweet Bakes.

Shop the Chapman Building. Step inside the heritage building and browse the boutique venues within. Shop at Lovinn Lime for the latest fashion or take a creative workshop at House of Ellery.

World class entertainment at The Art House. A modern live performing arts, music and comedy venue on the Central Coast, making world-class theatre inclusive and accessible to the local community. Sip on an after show cocktail at the speakeasy bar, Jerry Sent Me.

Relaxing day on the green. Test your skills with a round of golf at one of the Top 100 Courses in Australia (Australian Golfing Digest) – Kooindah Waters Golf Club, fondly known as 'the thinking golfer's course'.

Heart thumping day at the track. Ready to literally feel the horses thundering by? Catch a live race meeting and you're guaranteed to experience the action up close and personal at family-friendly Wyong Race Club.

Love Lanes Festival. The quirky Love Lanes Festival takes place each February among the historic laneways and streets of Wyong CBD.

Adventure in the hinterland. Take the kids to meet a friendly farm animal at Amazement Farm & Fun Park, meet the alpacas at Iris Lodge Alpacas or climb through a canopy at Treetops Adventure.
